I GET THAT FEELING OFF OF YOU.

YOUR FACE IS TOO LIGHT TO BE A CRITIC, AND NOT MANY PEOPLE WHO ARE NEITHER CRITICS OR ARTISTS WOULD WANT TO WATCH SOMEONE OF NO CONSEQUENCE DRAW ON SUCH A BEAUTIFUL DAY...

OH I'M SORRY -- MY NAME'S JUSTIN. I DON'T THINK I'VE SEEN YOU AROUND THE PARK BEFORE, HAVE I? ARE YOU NEW TO OUR TOWN?

CONTINUE...

Good if you like motion sickness :) :) ;). Game is still early access, but support devs like Jonas.

I encountered a bug in the game yesterday. Messaged on the discussion board to let the dev know, dev asked if I could send through the save file. Did this too. Dev not only patches the bug SAME DAY, but sends me back my save file, with the bug fixed, so I could continue my game.

The game is still a work in progress, but it's enjoyable today, and it's in great hands.. Please Note: While I DO Recommend this game, for the most part, I recommend it ONLY if you have someone to play it and a controller. Otherwise, despite my love for TFS, it's hard to recommend it or anyone playing by themselves and\/or WITHOUT a controller. This game is almost EXCLUSIVELY MULTIPLAYER. While there is TECHNICALLY a single player mode, all it really does is give you a chance to practice maneuverability, attacking, and getting used to a character(Which by and large ISN"T a bad thing). That being said, voice acting, music and character designs are fantastic! When I CAN play the game, it is really enjoyable.

Overall if you just want to support TeamFourStar and\/or want a couch game to play with some friends, go ahead and get the game. Otherwise, you're better off waiting for updates.

. Oh, Jack, where did you go wrong with 3? It's slow, the bad jokes are really just bad and it isn't as entertaining... Did I mention slow? you feel like the game is dragging and just don't want to play 3. All my opinion, but I would skip this one... ORE is a fun way to spend some time murdering space bugs. They weren't kidding about those recommended specs, but I'm basically playing on a microwave with a screen, so you PC Master Race folks shouldn't have too much trouble. Grab some controllers and some friends and collect some ORE!. First run ended after playing the tutorial, then jumping into the actual game, only to find myself outside of the map, wandering around until an event triggered and the game locked up.

Second run ended when I found out that ESC instantly closes the game.

Third run ended when I skipped the tutorial, went right into the game and was unable to move at all.

A game Obsidian would be proud of.. RILLY GOOD GAME but i think a multyplayer opshon would be a nice touch

Very good game, Interesting story with some random elements and alot of choises. There are so many different endings to this game that you can play through it over 30 times and still come out with a new outcome each time 5/5. I found this one interesting, though it helps having a guide to get to the ending proper if you dont have the patience to trigger things through trial and error. It's very amatuer (voice acting is only passible, for example), but there are some neat ideas there. Three bucks is definitely a good price for it.. On the hole a generally enjoyable experience. I do hope the developer updates this experience later on as there is a lot of lost potential.

Please allow normal walking options (my personal pet peeve) the current move setup forces you to clip through walls and floors Better textures, Different scenery options would really go well to give a better idea of scale and speed (good examples would be flying over the pyramids and the titanic, inside the hanger and at its maximum altitude.
Animations for the crew and passengers.
Maybe add information points around the ship (toggle on and off) so you can explore the ship at your leisure.. I bought this game based on a recommendation, but sadly I would not recommend it myself. It's about 10 minutes worth of gameplay done through several turns with a little epilogue. It says the game "randomizes a unique story every time you play", but on my second play through the results were already repeating themselves exactly as before.

It's too bad, this is a lovely little game with beautiful artwork and music. The game is so short that you really don't care if anything "bad" happens, because you'll just finish and start a new game in five more minutes. Your choices really don't have much impact.

The main reason I'm not recommending this is based on how much gameplay/replay value you get for the purchase price. There's no reason this game should be priced over $4.99 at most.. A series of VR environments that are not interactive, but completely explorable.

This is a showcase of what the potential is for high end AAA games in VR. If we can get graphics like this, combined with interactivity, and something to shoot then sign me up.

Unfortunately it may cause motion sickness in those who are sensitive to it. I love the natural motion, but they might want to add teleport, as an option.

The scenes loaded VERY quickly (less than 2 seconds), so the transition between environments is almost unnoticeable.

Plus how can you negatively review anything that is even remotely cool and free to boot.

. I love the Commands & Colors boardgames. However I cant recommend this as there are too many bugs. Several times the cards dont work. The UI has visual bugs. On top of this the graphics and sound are not very good. The price is too high for a product of this quality.. Why would anyone pay for this?. A disappointment.

I'm writing this review right after I've finished the game.

Some of the puzzles are just way to hard and you are punished for making experimental choices (like dying). You will have to inspect every single pixel if you're playing in gamer mode. 2nd part of the game is very linier and if you miss a single one of the 20 collectables you won't unlock the extra content and you can't go back to get what you missed.

I played the previous Tex Murphy adventures. I remember I enjoyed them but this one will be forgotten although there are some enjoyable moments half of the time. Response selection does not seem to have any impact at all and in the end the game is completely linier.

Replay value is close to zero.. One Of The Best If Not The Best Costume Sets in TOB

Plus this is less expensive.. 10/10

Star Shelter is the best VR game I have ever played to this day. The graphics are gorgeous, the content is continuous, you are never left with nothing left to do. It is tense in some moments, scary in others, and relaxing too. You can create stuff to develop your base, you can explore surrounding spaceships and moon bases, you can build spacecraft, you can fight drones, you can play the piano (in space). This game never stops suprising me, and I love it.

For £10 its and absolute bargain, I would have happily paid £30-£40 for this game, it is very well developed.

The Dev team is very active in the discord too, the game is still being worked on and improved.

Absolutely LOVE it.
